June Long Weekend Baseball Carnival Invitational 2024

The President Tamworth Baseball Inc David (Dave) McMurray cordially invites your team to participate in our 55th June Long Weekend Baseball Carnival.

The Tamworth Baseball Association has been hosting this annual carnival on the June long weekend for over 50 years. We have teams from across NSW and QLD that travel every year to take part and to renew friendships that have formed over the years with other competing teams. The carnival is also a great opportunity for players from all skill levels to witness a carnival spanning across several grades. We are excited to again extend the invitation to the many teams that join us each year. We look forward to another fantastic weekend of baseball, comradery, and celebration.

Registrations are now open for A Grade through to K Grade.
